V. STATEMENT OF FACTS

- 8. The Site is an approximately 13.6 square mile area located in the city of Dallas, Dallas County, Texas. Lead, arsenic, cadmium and other hazardous substances have been released from or are threatened to be released from a secondary lead smelter and associated facilities located in the approximate center of the Site. The Site is listed on the National Priorities List, 60 Fed. Reg. 50435 (Sept. 29, 1995), which constitutes Appendix B to the National Oil and Hazardous Substances Pollution Contingency Plan ("NCP"), 40 C.F.R. Part 300, which EPA promulgated pursuant to Section 105 of CERCLA, 42, U.S.C. § 9605.
- 9. Because of the large size of the Site, EPA has divided the Site into five Operable consists of privately owned residential properties and residential high risk areas (such as schools, churches and day care centers) and is bounded on the north and east by the Trinity River, on the south by Ft. Worth Avenue and Davis Avenue, and on the west by State Highway Loop 12 (Walton Walker Blvd.) and the Trinity River lev e. OU No. 2 is an area owned by the Dallas Housing Authority for public residential housing and is bound by Westmoreland Road to the west, Hampton Road to the east, Canada Drive to the north and Singleton Boulevard to the south. OU No. 3 consists of three distinct properties where smelter waste was disposed, two of which are former City of Dallas landfills and one that is a lead slag and batter chip disposal area. OU No. 4 is the location of the former secondary lead smelter and support facilities located on the southeast side of the intersection of Westmoreland Road and Singleton Blvd. OU No. 5 is located across the street on the southwest side of the intersection of Westmoreland Road and Singleton Blvd. and is the location of former battery breaking and disposal areas associated with the secondary smelting activities.
 Units ("OUs"). The Site OUs are depicted on the map attached hereto as Appendix B. OU No. 1

- 10. Smelter operations commenced at OU Nos. 4 and 5 of the Site in the early 1930s and permanently ceased in 1984.
- 11. Releases of hazardous substances, including, but not limited to, lead, cadmium, and arsenic, have occurred and may continue to occur at and from the smelter properties, from smelter and related operations, from air emissions from the smelter stack, from the use by area residents of battery chips and lead slag as fill in residential yards and driveways and from the disposal of smelter wastes at various locations at the Site.
- 12. As a result of the release or threatened release of hazardous substances, EPA, the State, and other entities have undertaken response actions, as that term is defined in Section

- 101(25) of CERCLA, 42 U.S.C. § 9601(25) and Section 361.003(32) and (33) of the Texas Health and Safety Code, at or in connection with the Site, and EPA, the State, and/or other entities will undertake response actions at the Site in the future.
- 13. As a result of a lawsuit brought by the City of Dallas and the Texas Air Control Board against RSR Corporation ("RSR") and a related company, Murph Metals, Inc. ("Murph"), in 1983 RSR and Murph were required by court order to fund a cleanup of the residential community within one-half mile of the smelter. As a result, RSR and Murph entered into a CERCLA Administrative Order on Consent with EPA to perform the cleanup. The cleanup was performed from 1984 through 1985 and required the removal and offsite disposal of soils in residential areas and public play areas and day care centers located within the one-half mile boundary. The cleanup action conducted from 1984 through 1985 was based in part on recommendations made by the Center for Disease Control ("CDC") and was considered a protective and appropriate action at that time.
- 14. In 1990 the CDC revised its recommendations and lowered its blood lead level of concern. In addition, EPA obtained new information indicating that contamination from the smelter extended beyond the original one-half mile area addressed in the 1984-85 cleanup. Consequently, EPA conducted a removal action in OU No. 1 consisting of the removal and offsite disposal of soils contaminated in excess of removal action cleanup levels at 420 residential and residential high risk areas. The residential areas previously addressed in the early cleanup did not require further removal actions.
- 15. Concurrent with the removal action at OU No. 1, EPA conducted a remedial investigation and human health and ecological risk assessments to determine the nature and extent of contamination at the residential locations in OU No. 1. Based on the successful completion of the removal action at OU No. 1, the results of the remedial investigation and risk assessments, and the public's comments, on May 9, 1995, EPA issued a Record of Decision ("ROD") for OU No.

- 1. The ROD for OU No. 1 set forth EPA's finding that no further CERCLA response action is necessary at residential and residential high risk (day care centers, etc.) locations in OU No. 1 to protect human health and the environment.
- 16. On August 9, 1993, EPA and the Dallas Housing Authority ("DHA") entered into a CERCLA Administrative Order on Consent ("AOC"). Under the AOC, DHA performed (with the oversight and approval of EPA) a remedial investigation at OU No. 2 and conducted a removal action of contaminated soils and a demolition of approximately 167 buildings located at the southwest portion of OU No. 2. The AOC specified that DHA perform the removal and demolition activities in the same manner and in accordance with the Action Memoranda for EPA's removal action in OU No. 1. Concurrent with DHA's activities, EPA performed human health and ecological risk assessments. Based on the successful completion of the removal and demolition activities at OU No. 2, the results of the remedial investigation and risk assessments for OU No. 2, and the public's comments, on May 9, 1995, EPA issued a ROD for OU No. 2. The ROD for OU No. 2 set forth EPA's finding that no further CERCLA response action is necessary at OU No. 2 to protect human health and the environment.
- 17. EPA conducted a remedial investigation and feasibility study and a human health and ecological risk assessment for OU No. 3. After taking public comments, EPA issued a ROD for OU No. 3 on September 30, 1997. The major components of the remedy selected for OU No. 3 are the excavation and offsite disposal of slag, battery chips, and contaminated soil from an area where surface dumping occurred; the containment with a protective cap of portions of the landfills where there is exposed slag, battery chips, and metals contaminated soil; and the removal of surface contamination from a public park. The projected cost of the remedy for OU No. 3 is $6,350,000.

- On December 22, 1994, EPA signed an Action Memorandum for the conduct of a non-time critical removal action at OU Nos. 4 and 5. EPA based its decision on an Engineering Evaluation/Cost Analysis Report that was issued for public notice and comment on September 16, 1994. EPA conducted the removal action at OU Nos. 4 and 5 from May 1995 to July 1995. The action consisted of removal of 600 drums of waste material, 90 debris piles and 60 laboratory containers present inside and outside of the structures and buildings at OU Nos. 4 and 5. All materials were disposed of offsite at appropriate and permitted hazardous and non-hazardous disposal facilities.
- 19. EPA conducted a remedial investigation and feasibility study and a human health and ecological risk assessment for OU No. 4. After taking public comments, EPA issued a ROD for OU No. 4 on February 28, 1996. The major components of the remedy selected for OU No. 4 are the demolition and offsite disposal of the buildings on OU No. 4; the demolition and offsite disposal of the smelter stack; and the excavation and offsite disposal of concrete foundations and centaminated soil. The projected cost of the remedy for OU No. 4 is $11,490,795.
- 20. EPA conducted a remedial investigation and feasibility study and a human health and ecological risk assessment for OU No. 5. After taking public comments, EPA issued a ROD for OU No. 5 on April 3, 1997. The major components of the remedy selected for OU No. 5 are decontamination of buildings; the demolition and offsite disposal of the former battery wrecking building; the containment of the former surface impoundment, former landfill and slag burial are; and no action for groundwater for OU Nos. 4 and 5. The projected cost of the remedy for OU No. 5 is $9,343,800.

- 21. EPA has prepared Administrative Records for the final decisions issued for the Site.
- 22. EPA has documented that as of March 31, 2000, it has incurred Response Costs at or in connection with the Site in the total amount of $28,931,455.36.
- 23. EPA and other entities will continue to incur response costs at or in connection with the Site during the implementation of the response actions selected in the RODs for OU Nos. 3, 4, and 5.
- 24. The State, through the Texas Natural Resource Conservation Commission ("TNRCC"), also has performed response actions at the Site. In 1991, the TNRCC undertook the remediation of three of the heavily contaminated private residential homes located in OU No. 1.

 At these properties TNRCC fenced the sites, excavated contaminated soils and disposed of the soils at permitted hazardous waste facilities.
- 25. From 1991 to 1993, the TNRCC conducted a visual survey of properties in OU No. 1 to determine the presence of battery casing chips as an indication of contamination. At the locations where survey crews found pieces of battery casings, soil samples were collected and analyzed for lead, arsenic and cadmium. TNRCC surveyed more than 6,800 sites during the investigation within OU No. 1. This survey was an essential part of EPA's Remedial Investigation and final remedial strategy for the Site.

- 26. The State has documented that it has incurred and paid State Response Costs at or in connection with the Site in the total amount of $1,740,452.72 as of October 31, 1997.
- 27. EPA and the State have identified parties (Potentially Responsible Parties or "PRPs") who by contract, agreement or otherwise arranged for the disposal or treatment at the Site of materials containing hazardous substances that they owned or possessed.
- 28. EPA has prepared a contribution ranking list for PRPs who arranged for disposal of materials at the Site. EPA used typical operations records that cover a discreet period of time as a basis for the contribution ranking list. The volume of hazardous substances contributed by each Respondent is shown in the chart attached hereto as Appendix A.
- 29. Information currently known to EPA and the State indicates that the amount of hazardous substances contributed to the Site by each Respondent does not exceed one percent (1%) of the total contribution of hazardous substances to the Site, and that the toxic or other hazardous effects of the substances contributed by each Respondent to the Site do not contribute disproportionately to the cumulative toxic or other hazardous effects of the hazardous substances at the Site.
- 30. EPA estimates that the total response costs incurred and to be incurred at or in connection with the Site by the EPA Hazardous Substance Superfund, the State, and other parties will be between $50,000,000 and $60,000,000. The payment required to be made by each Respondent pursuant to this Consent Order is a minor portion of this total amount.

VI. DETERMINATIONS

- 31. Based upon the Statement of Facts set forth above and on the administrative record for this Site, EPA has determined that:
- a. The Site is a "facility" as that term is defined in Section 101(9) of CERCLA, 42 U.S.C. § 9601(9), and Section 361.181(c) of the Texas Health and Safety Code.
- b. Each Respondent is a "person" as that term is defined in Section 101(21) of CERCLA, 42 U.S.C. § 9601(21), and Section 361.003(26) of the Texas Health and Safety Code.
- c. Each Respondent is a "potentially responsible party" within the meaning of Section 122(g)(1) of CERCLA, 42 U.S.C. § 9622(g)(1), and Section 361.271 of the Texas Health and Safety Code.
- d. There has been an actual or threatened "release" of a "hazardous substance" from the Site as those terms are defined in Section 101(22) and (14) of CERCLA, 42 U.S.C. § 9601(22) and (14), and Section 361.003(31) and (14) of the Texas Health and Safety Code.
 - e. The actual or threatened "release" caused the incurrence of response costs.
- f. Prompt settlement with each Respondent is practicable and in the public interest within the meaning of Section 122(g)(1) of CERCLA, 42 U.S.C. § 9622(g)(1), and 30 T.A.C. § 335.351(d).
- g. As to each Respondent, this Consent Order involves only a minor portion of the response costs at the Site within the meaning of Section 122(g)(i) of CERCLA, 42 U.S.C. § 9622(g)(1), and 30 T.A.C. § 335.351(d).
 - h. The amount of hazardous substances contributed to the Site by each Respondent and the toxic or other hazardous effects of the hazardous substances contributed to the Site by each Respondent are minimal in comparison to other hazardous substances at the Site within the meaning of Section 12?(g)(1)(A) of CERCLA, 42 U.S.C. § 9622(g)(1)(A), and Section 361.200 of the Texas Health and Safety Code and 30 T.A.C. § 335.351(d).
